General Steinau is arrived in the Saxon Camp. The Horse from Saxony is come within a day's march of this Place, but we have yet no account of the Foot being landed at Memel, they coming thither by Sea from Coningsberg.

Warsaw, June 27. The King of Poland intends to go from hence the 29th Instant towards Liefland, and his Servants and Equipage are gone before. The Envoy of Tartary had Audience of Leave of the King on the 24th Instant, and will be returning home in few days.

Vienna, June 30. The Imperial Court continues in the Palace at Favorita, where they were entertained yesterday with a very fine Opera, at which the Turkish Ambassador was present; and in a day or two the Court will be diverted with a Running at the Ring. The Elector of Brandenburgh's Minister has acquainted the Emperor, that the Elector his Master has thought fit in this Juncture of Affairs in the North, to assemble some Forces for the Security of his Frontiers, but that he has no Intention to employ them to the Prejudice of the Peace and Quiet of those Parts, but on the contrary will use his utmost Endeavours to restore and preserve the same.
